

Rare Diseases: How to improve patient's access to rare disease treatments?

30th of November 2022

Embassy of Sweden

Agenda

Time	Name	Topic
13:00	Nikki Brandt , Moderator	Start of the event, Practicalities
13:05	Fredrik Jörgensen Swedish Ambassador to the Czech Republic	Welcome and opening remarks
13:10	Ulf Persson Professor, The Swedish Institute for Health Economics	The importance of cost - effectiveness analysis for improving access to treatment in rare diseases
13:30	Tomáš Doležal CEO, Value Outcomes	First experience with new reimbursement pathway for orphan medicinal products
13:45	Jonas Lindblom Partner &amp; Senior Advisor, Macanda	The orphan drug reimbursement landscape in Sweden - a brief history
14:00	Panel discussion	Participants: Ulf Persson, Tomáš Doležal, Jonas Lindblom
14:15	Coffee break
14:30	Oskar Ahlberg Board Member, Rare Diseases Sweden	Rare diseases in Sweden: Patient perspective
14:45	Anna Arellanesová Director, Czech Association for Rare Diseases	"New way" for orphan reimbursement in the Czech Republic: First experience from patient perspective
15:00	Victor Maertens Government Affairs Manager, Eucope	OMP regulation and an ecosystem for future innovation
15:15	Panel discussion	Participants: Oskar Ahlberg, Anna Arellanesová, Victor Maertens
15:30-16:00	Q&amp;A, open discussion, networking	Participants will have a chance to ask questions and raise important points related to the topic